

NIRI® National Volunteer Opportunities

WORKING GROUPS	STAFF CONTACT	AVAILABILITY	DESCRIPTION
Board of Directors	ihannon@niri.org	Available	The Board of Directors establishes direction for NIRI, serves as a policy-making body for issues affecting NIRI and the conduct of investor relations, provides strategic planning for NIRI, and oversees the operation of staff. Four positions are available per year. Volunteers must be active IR practitioner members.
Fellows Selection Committee	ihannon@niri.org	Available	The NIRI Fellows Selection Committee chooses those living NIRI members who epitomize the leadership, integrity, involvement, and contributions of investor relations professionals. Volunteers must be NIRI Fellows .
Ethics Council	tallen@niri.org	Available	The NIRI Ethics Council was formed to elevate the importance of ethical issues and provide additional resources to members and the Board. The Council acts as an independent committee of the Board regarding ethical matters that may arise in the practice of investor relations. Volunteers are appointed by the NIRI Board Chair.
Annual Conference	Shannon Potter	Availability dependent on programming	The NIRI Annual Conference is the largest IR professional development event in the world. Limited volunteer opportunities include the Annual Conference Committee and speaking opportunities dependent on programming. Project-based volunteering and mentoring opportunities also available.
Senior Roundtable Steering Committee	Shannon Potter	Availability dependent on programming	The NIRI Senior Roundtable provides the forum to support and recognize your experience, with exclusive opportunities to engage with senior-level IR practitioners. Limited positions on the Steering Committee are available to guide programming, and limited speaking opportunities exist dependent on programming. Volunteers must be Senior Roundtable members.

Fundamentals of Investor Relations	Shannon Potter	Availability dependent on programming	NIRI's Fundamental of Investor Relations is a comprehensive IR seminar offering a structured overview of all aspects of investor relations. Limited volunteer speaking opportunities exist dependent on programming.
NIRI Webinars	Shannon Potter	Availability dependent on programming	NIRI Webinars are an excellent opportunity to learn without leaving your office or while on the road. Limited volunteer speaking opportunities exist dependent on programming.
Certification Council	Iman Hannon	Availability dependent on term completions	The Investor Relations Charter (IRC®) Certification Council adopts policies and procedures that govern all IRC certification activities.
Certification Scheme Committee	Iman Hannon	Availability dependent on term completions	The CSC Committee is responsible for developing and maintaining the IRC scheme (i.e., examination and renewal program).
Examination Development Committee	Iman Hannon	Availability dependent on term completions	The EDC Committee is responsible for constructing IRC examination forms and building the item bank to meet psychometric guidelines and test specifications.
IR Update Magazine	Ted Allen	Available	IR Update is NIRI's premier member magazine. Each issue contains informative articles on the latest IR developments, trends, and best practices from today's thought leaders. If you are interested in contributing an article for the magazine, please review our Editorial Guidelines . Contributors are eligible to receive PDUs for their articles.
Editorial Advisory Committee, IR Update	Ted Allen	Available	Editorial Advisory Committee members contribute ideas and content to NIRI staff in support of the magazine's objectives and plans.
Social Media Thought-Leader Posts	Iman Hannon	Available	Consider advancing the IR profession by exploring an aspect of each of the ten domains or the Investor Relations Competency Framework in a thought-leadership piece posted on NIRI's eGroups members-only discussion forum, or NIRI's LinkedIn Group discussion page. Becoming a blogger is the way to enhance your skills, share your insight, and earn PDUs to maintain your IRC certification.

NIRI Chapters	Local NIRI Chapters	Contact local chapter for opportunities	NIRI chapters provide excellent information, professional development, and networking opportunities on a regional and virtual basis. There also is an opportunity to participate in NIRI's advocacy efforts through the chapter advocacy ambassador program.