

Biographies Regular Member Director Candidates 2023-2026 Term

Remy Bernarda, IRC
Partner
IR Advisory Solutions

Remy Bernarda has over 25 years of experience in finance, investor relations and communications focused primarily in healthcare. Over her career, she has initiated and managed investor relations, corporate and clinical communications, and marketing programs for several companies both in-house and as external advisor.

Remy is well-versed in both internal and external communications and has extensive experience advising C-Level officers and Boards of Directors on overall corporate strategy, communications and disclosure, crisis management, financing, and operations.

Remy began her career on Wall Street working in institutional sales and trading administration at Goldman Sachs and Knight Equity Markets, and investment banking at Bear Stearns. She holds an M.B.A. and a B.S. degree in Business Administration from Pepperdine University. Remy is an active participant in the investor relations community including her role as Chair of the 2020 National Investor Relations Institute (NIRI) Annual Conference. She is also a member of the inaugural class to fulfill the career requirements and pass the NIRI Investor Relations Charter (IRC) examination.

Outside of work, Remy remains very involved with her community having volunteered for numerous organizations over the years. Currently she is the President of a local non-profit, the Sierra Junior Tennis Association, which provides charitable and educational programs to promote the development of junior tennis as a means of healthful recreation and physical fitness. In this role she works closely with the USTA Foundation as part of SJTA's efforts to bring tennis and education to under-resourced youth in the community. She is an ardent sports fan and leads an active outdoor lifestyle that includes tennis, skiing, travel and reading.

Lisa Caperelli
Vice President, Investor Relations
Arbutus Biopharma Corporation

Lisa Caperelli has 20 years of demonstrated experience in leading the strategy and execution of comprehensive investor relations and corporate communications programs for various early- to commercial-stage publicly traded biotechnology companies.

Ms. Caperelli is the Vice President of Investor Relations for Arbutus Biopharma Corporation. Most recently she held the position of Associate Vice President at Harmony Biosciences. Prior to Harmony, Lisa held roles of increasing responsibility in investor relations, corporate communications and patient advocacy with several biotech companies including Marinus Pharmaceuticals, Advaxis, Inc., PolyMedix and Windtree Therapeutics, Inc.

Ms. Caperelli holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Delaware Valley University. She is an active member of the National Investors Relations Institute (NIRI) and currently serves as President of the Philadelphia Chapter.

Shelly Hubbard, IRC
Vice President, Investor Relations
Vista Outdoor, Inc.

Shelly Hubbard, VP and Head of Investor Relations at Vista Outdoor, joined the company in March 2021 following an eight-year career at Nike in a variety of roles in FP&A and operations finance ultimately leading to her role as Director, Global Investor Relations at Nike. She has over 20 years of experience in investor relations, corporate finance, financial planning and analysis, financial modeling, strategic planning, ESG and corporate communications with leading brands across multiple industries including outdoor recreation, performance and lifestyle footwear and apparel, financial services, healthcare, sport performance equipment, auto care and consumer data spanning from small to mega market caps.

During her Nike career, Shelly was recognized in her IR role through a variety of awards including the 2019 All-Star Award for work in investor relations and ESG engagement, a 2019 Just Do It Award Nominee for Nike being voted Best Investor Day by a third-party and an award for Being on the Offense, Always, a Nike maxim for developing new insights and tools while in a corporate finance role.

Throughout her career, Shelly has led with a curiosity to continue learning along with a servant leadership mindset. She purposely designed her career to include multi-faceted experience across several functions that pursued her passion for finance, strategy, communications and capital markets.

Shelly is now in her fourth investor relations role of increasing responsibility and has learned that each time she leaves the IR function, she is looking for the next opportunity to return. Shelly has decided to make IR her life-long career and is ready to help further the investor relations function to attain and maintain a must-have seat at the table within executive leadership teams with further career advancement outside of investor relations into the C-suite.

Shelly received her MBA from Pepperdine University and her Bachelor of Science in Business from the University of Minnesota, Carlson School of Management. Just over a year ago, she also obtained her IRC certification and is a CPA candidate. Earlier in her career, Shelly received her Series 7, 63 and 65 FINRA licenses.

In 2022, she was a volunteer member of the NIRI Annual Conference Committee (ACC) and developed two sessions for the conference. In 2020, Shelly was also a member of the NIRI Think Tank: Artificial Intelligence in Investor Relations and joined a panel discussion on the topic during the virtual annual conference that year.

Shelly has a passion for building strong connections and relationships with others and is continuously seeking opportunities to learn and give back while aspiring to be a great leader. She enjoys reading, being active outdoors through a variety of activities, learning, traveling, spending time with family and friends and meeting new people. She currently lives near Minneapolis, MN with her husband and two children following 18 years on the West Coast.

Timothy Sedabres, IRC
EVP - Head of Investor Relations
Huntington National Bank

Timothy Sedabres is Head of Investor Relations for Huntington Bancshares Incorporated (NASDAQ: HBAN). Tim leads the company's Investor Relations function and joined through the acquisition of TCF, where he previously served as EVP, Corporate Development & Strategy and Head of Investor Relations.

Previous to TCF, Tim served as SVP, Director of Corporate Strategy and Head of Investor Relations for Banc of California, Inc. (NYSE: BANC) a $10 billion California based regional bank focused on empowering California through its diverse businesses, entrepreneurs, and communities.

He also served as VP of Finance at Associated Banc-Corp (NYSE: ASB), a $3 billion market cap company, where he held leadership positions within investor relations, finance, and corporate treasury, including serving as IRO for Associated. Tim has been responsible for enterprise-wide stress testing and capital planning in addition to experience in investor relations.

Tim holds an M.B.A from Saint Louis University, a bachelor's degree in Finance from Bradley University, and maintains the Investor Relations Charter (IRC) certification.

Tim serves on various committees for Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity. He has been recognized by IR Magazine for Best IR by a Small-Cap Company (BANC) in 2017 and was named 2014 Young Professional of the Year by the Greater Green Bay Chamber of Commerce.

He was selected as a member of the Think Tank on the Future of Investor Relations, has served on the Annual Conference Committee (ACC) for NIRI National, and has spoken on numerous panels on investor relations topics for NIRI and IR Magazine.