

April 25, 2017

Embrace the Change

Your peers on the NIRI 2017 Annual Conference Committee have put together a comprehensive program with something for everyone:

Governance Sessions

Proactive Corporate Governance: A View from All Perspectives
The Activist Front: What's New
Managing for the Long Term in a Short-Term World
Good Corporate Governance: Is it Just Common Sense

Case Studies

IRO Teach-In: Strategy and Planning
Actions from Insights: Perception Audit Case Study Sessions
The Tech Savvy IRO
IRMatch.com: Advancing Your Career

Global Sessions

Global IR Summit: Aligning Non-Financial Disclosure Practices with Investor Expectations
GAAP vs. Non-GAAP Metrics: One Year After SEC Guidance
Analyzing Stock Volatility & Risk: The Relationship Between Stocks and Oil Prices
Digital IR Communications: Innovation and Best Practices
Global Economic Outlook: Assessing the Impact of Recent Geopolitical Changes

ESG

Environmental Social and Governance (ESG): Demystifying Sustainability for IR Practitioners
The Evolution of Regulatory and Sustainability Disclosures: What are the Latest Trends
Good Corporate Governance: Is it Just Common Sense?

Register now, standard registration rates end in three weeks on May 15. You'll also want to reserve your hotel room at the JW Marriott by May 15 for special NIRI rates.

These rates are available three days before and after conference if you want to take advantage of Orlando's many attractions.

I hope you all saw our recent NIRI Fellows announcement naming Margo C. Happer as the 2017 NIRI Fellow. Congratulations again to Margo for this well-deserved recognition!

Finally, don't miss your chance to sit for the new June IRC credential exam. The deadline to apply is this Friday, April 28.

Best regards,
Matt

Matthew D. Bruschi, CAE
Vice President, Communications and Practice Information
National Investor Relations Institute
mbrusch@niri.org
@Matt_Brusch
LinkedIn.com/in/mattbrusch