

May 30, 2017

Five Days Until the NIRI Annual Conference – You Can Still Register

You won't want to miss the NIRI Annual Conference on June 3 – 7 in Orlando. Your Conference Committee has put together an outstanding program filled with networking and professional education opportunities, as well as some fun in the sun:

- 140 speakers, 24 breakout sessions, and five general sessions
- Speed Networking – move from table to table to connect
- New "IR Teach-In: Strategy and Planning" – led by senior-level IR professionals
- Industry meetups – connect with peers from your own sector
- A solution-filled exhibit hall, the IR Showcase
- The NIRI Golf Classic, a 5-K fun run/walk, and yoga
- Evening receptions, like Monday's "Life is Not a Stress Rehearsal: Using Humor & Wisdom for Success"

Click here for the program book to plan your time at the world's largest investor relations gathering. You can register onsite in Orlando, but you will find savings by registering online by Friday, June 2.

Pre-conference seminars in Orlando include Finance 101, Writing Workshop for IR, and Think Like an Analyst. Please pass this link along to a peer who may benefit from these courses.

Finally, please note that we will not publish IR Weekly on June 6. The newsletter will resume its regular publication schedule on June 13.

I look forward to seeing my NIRI friends in Orlando – and making new ones!

Mike

Michael C. McGough, CAE
Chief Membership Officer

National Investor Relations Institute
mmcough@niri.org