Election Time

On November 3, NIRI will host a webinar, “The Impact of Presidential Elections on Financial Markets and the Economy” that features noted economist Jason Schenker. This timely webinar is free for members; please register here. You can also listen to the archived webinar at your convenience after the broadcast.

If you're in the Phoenix area, we invite you to join us on December 7 as your new national board members are elected to office. The NIRI Annual Meeting and Luncheon takes place at the JW Marriott Camelback Inn Scottsdale and is complementary for members. Please register online. Members can vote their NIRI proxy in advance of the meeting through this PDF document.

A new class of NIRI Fellows will be elected in early 2017. We're seeking nominations of members who epitomize the leadership, integrity, and contributions of investor relations professionals. Please visit www.niri.org/fellows for information on qualifications and a nomination form.

Upcoming NIRI seminars in New York include Finance 101 on November 14, Finance Essentials on November 15 – 16, and Think Like an Analyst on November 17. We hope you'll pass these links along to colleagues who would benefit from NIRI programs.

Finally, a reminder that next Monday, October 31, is the early bird registration deadline for NIRI's 2017 Annual Conference. You'll want to register now to take advantage of the best rates for the world's largest IR education and networking event. The conference takes place at the JW Marriott Grande Lakes Orlando on June 4-7, 2017. I hope to see you then!

With best regards,
Mike
