

About NIRI

Founded in 1969, NIRI is the professional association of corporate officers and investor relations consultants responsible for communication among corporate management, shareholders, securities analysts and other financial community constituents. The largest professional investor relations association in the world, NIRI's 3,300 members represent 2,000 publicly held companies and $5.4 trillion in stock market capitalization.

Our Mission

NIRI is dedicated to advancing the practice of investor relations and the professional competency and stature of its members.

Definition of Investor Relations

Investor relations is a strategic management responsibility that integrates finance, communication, marketing and securities law compliance to enable the most effective two-way communication between a company, the financial community, and other constituencies, which ultimately contributes to a company's securities achieving fair valuation.
